Terms and Conditions

- Only new customers ordering Efficient Elements for the first time and at the regular price are eligible for referral.
- Self-referral is not permitted. Referring and referred person must not be employed by the same company.
- New customers can be referred only by one individual. In case multiple individuals claim awards for the same recommendation, only the first recommendation form received will be considered.
- The purchase order must be clearly identifiable by the information provided in the recommendation form. Your friend's name, company information and e-mail address have to be stated on the order form for the recommendation to be accepted by Efficient Elements.
- Individuals claiming awards must have either a bank account within the European Union or a PayPal account fit to receive payments. Awards will be credited once the new customer has settled the corresponding invoice.
- The "Recommend to a friend" program expires on December 31, 2012.
